Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give a discount on his paper and still expect a merchant can cover his counter free gifts of dry goods, and still have a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and when you buy, you must pay for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

HECHINGER & CO.'S

FALL STYLES

Are Shown in Scores of Handsome New Cuts!

Weavers' wits were never more versatile in producing attractive looks effects. Skill in wholesale tailoring has made marvelous progress in recent years. No better evidence is needed than a critical inspection of ready-to-wear clothing made for them. There is a nicely of detail, a carefulness of finish, a symmetry of cut that denotes master minds and master hands. This not only has reference to their clothing, but also to their other different departments. Nowhere will you see so handsome a display of gentlemen's Furnishing Goods, fine Shirts, Hats, Collars and Ties as Hechinger & Co. show.

Have You Looked at Their Stock of Smith & Stoughton

SHOES?

Recognizing the needs of their patrons, Hechinger & Co. arranged with Messrs. Smith & Stoughton, one of the most prominent manufacturers of fine Men's Shoes in the country, to sell their goods. See their window display of them and you will not wonder that although but thirty days elapsed since the first shipment arrived they are already doing the Men's Fine Shoe business of the town.

If Jailer John Johnson doesn't sue The Cincinnati Post for defamation of character, he isn't the sort of man. The lead on him is a Mason county's Jailer is a handsome man—in fact he is going to be re-elected on his shape; but The Post's picture of him would stop a runaway mule.

Elsewhere will be found the announcement of Mr. W. C. Sader for the office of Mayor. Mr. Sader is too well known to need any introduction to the people of Mayville. He has been City Treasurer, and is now a member of the Board of Education. His satisfactory administration of former trusts is guaranteed that if chosen he will discharge his new duties with becoming dignity and signal ability.

In honor of the event an all-day service was held, embracing Sabbath school, Sermons, Platform Meeting, and Epworth League.

The morning sermon was by the Rev. S. D. Clayton of Dayton, O., who was Pastor of this Church in 1892-3, being then 30 years of age.

His theme was the "Needs of the Church," and among other wants he enumerated more spiritual singing, an educated Ministry, comfortable houses of worship with a hearty welcome to the poorest man or woman—but, above all else, the outpouring of the Holy Ghost was the great need.

Dr. Clayton is an earnest speaker, and at the close of his sermon he referred in tender and affectionate terms to his former association with the Church here.

The Platform Meeting, held in the afternoon, was presided over by Judge Hutchins, whose father was one of the pioneers of the society in this city.

The Epworth League at 6 o'clock in the evening was led by Mr. L. M. Lane.

Dr. Clayton will be in the city a day or two, and this evening he will deliver an address at the Church, to which everybody is cordially invited.

Seats free, and all welcome.

Willis of Flemingsburg officiating. Mr. Young is Editor of The Brookville Review, while his bride is one of Bracken's charming young ladies.

MEMORABLE OCCASION.

Semi-Centennial Celebration, with sermon By a Pastor of Long Ago.

Half a century yesterday since the M. E. Church was built in this city, and he who preached to the congregation yesterday had been the Pastor of the fathers and mothers forty-four years ago.

In honor of the event an all-day service was held, embracing Sabbath school, Sermons, Platform Meeting, and Epworth League.

The morning sermon was by the Rev. S. D. Clayton of Dayton, O., who was Pastor of this Church in 1892-3, being then 30 years of age.

His theme was the "Needs of the Church," and among other wants he enumerated more spiritual singing, an educated Ministry, comfortable houses of worship with a hearty welcome to the poorest man or woman—but, above all else, the outpouring of the Holy Ghost was the great need.

Death of This Estimable Woman Last Evening—Funeral Arrangements.

Mrs. Charlotte Burrows, after an illness of seven weeks with stomach trouble, died Sunday evening at 5:30 o'clock at her home on East Front street.

Mrs. Burrows was 65 years of age, and was a most noble Christian woman.

Besides a large circle of friends to whom her death was a loss, Mrs. Burrows leaves two daughters, Mrs. Ed. Flowers of Covington and Miss Sallie Burrows of this city, and three grandchildren.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, services conducted by Rev. Dr. John S. Hayes of the First Presbyterian Church, assisted by Rev. J. S. Sims of the M. E. Church, South.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORERS.

District Convention at Flemingsburg One of the Best Ever Held.

The seventh annual convention of the Christian Endeavor Societies of District No. 2, made up of the counties of Mason, Boone, and Campbell, was held at Washington, Kentucky, on Saturday afternoon.

The meeting was the best ever held in the district, about twenty-five delegates being present, and the good people of Flemingsburg did everything in their power to make the occasion a pleasant one.

Mr. H. C. Curran had charge of the convention until Saturday evening, when new officers were chosen for the next term.

Following are those elected:

President—John H. Orr, Jr., Mayville.

Vice-President—Hon. John P. McCarty, Flemington.

Secretary—Miss Kate Straube—Au gasta.

Treasurer—Miss Anna Myall, Mayville.

To this District three counties were added—Boyd, Carter and Greenup.

A new trial is ordered on account of error in the Court refusing to admit certain testimony.

KILLING AT CARLISLE.

Man Fatally Shot and Another Head Crushed With a Hammer.

There was serious trouble at Carlisle Saturday afternoon.

Asa Stone and Ben Young, farmers, living near the city, engaged in a fight at Myers' blacksmith shop.

Stone was shot through the left breast and Young's skull was crushed with a hammer.

Young is unconscious, and his death is morally expected.

Stone's wound is not necessarily fatal.

Young said that Stone had ruined his home, and was seeking revenge.

A series of meetings is being held at Stewart's Chapel, conducted by their Pastor, Rev. Grizzel.

Our village blacksmith, John Hedges, has vacated the shop and will reside at Hillsboro, Ky., in the future.

A protracted meeting has been in progress at Mt. Lebanon, Lewis county, for the past two weeks, conducted by the Pastor, Rev. Hall Pollett.

The outlaws, including the new horse, who had been let to G. D. Jenkins and son, Alton, they will begin the work this week.

Henry Burd's residence burned Thursday about 3 o'clock p. m. The roof was a-blaze when the fire was discovered, and as they had neither ladder nor water the house could not be saved. It was insured in the Farmers Home Mutual Aid. The loss is supposed to be about $1,000. There wasn't anything saved except some bed clothing. The fire started from a defective flue.

Miss Amanda S. Gibbons, a native and former resident of Dover, is now employed as press reader on The New York Evening Post.

TAKES THEIR SIZE.

Covington Editor Who Places a Proper Estimate on the Newport Gang.

Covington Commonwealth.

It is well that the penalty for the crime with which the twelve young men arrested in Newport yesterday are charged is "Death."

The deed, as the facts in the case leak out, is devilish and foul almost beyond conception.

The twelve men are latter-day nineteenth century bums, the like of which could not be found the world over.

They are outcasts from their own families and have not done an honest day's work for years.

They are without question the fittest subjects upon which to practice the art of hanging ever produced.

The crime is one for which, however, the good people of Campbell county are in no way to blame, and the vigorous action in the case displayed by their officers is to be commended.

Those who believe chronic diarrhoea to be incurable should read what Mr. P. E. Graham of G. Mills, La., has to say on the subject, viz.: "I have been a sufferer from chronic diarrhoea ever since the war and have tried all kinds of medicines for it. At last I found a remedy that effected a cure and that was Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy." This medicine can always be depended upon for colic, cholera morbus, dysentery and diarrhoea. It is pleasant to take and never fails to effect a cure. 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by J. JUDGE DURELLE.

Hands Down a Strong Dissenting Opinion on a Question of Exemptions.

The Court of Appeals, with a divided bench of four to three, handed down an opinion in the case of Wilson's Assignee vs. Wilson, etc., from Todd county, touching the matter of exemptions under Section 1897, Kentucky Statutes, that is of great interest not only to lawyers and litigants, but to all married men and women with property and creditors.

The majority of the Court holds that the wife, who had been in business for herself for a number of years following her husband's failure, and who made an assignment subsequent to the passage of the married woman's property act, is entitled to the exemption, notwithstanding her husband is still living but insolvent.

Judge DuRelle handed down a dissenting opinion, concurred in by Judges White and Guffy, which strongly brings out the points involved. In fact even heterodox is the plain opinion of all. This dissenting opinion is as follows:

I am constrained to dissent from the opinion of the majority in this case.

The appeal in this case has been allowed, excepting under the law embodied in Section 1897 of the Kentucky Statutes, providing that certain "property of persons with a family" resident in this Commonwealth shall be exempt.

The majority holds that the wife, who has been uniformly so construed. It can not mean persons living with a family; and the majority always held that the wife was not a member of the family upon the law threw the burden of the family's support. This is invariably the case, if little or nothing else can be said.

The person with whom a family could waive the exemption, could sell the property except or mortgage it, and the family in such case were not entitled to the exemption.

The majority holds that the wife, who has been uniformly so construed, is entitled to the exemption, because she is a person with a family.

I am constrained to hold that there may not be circumstances under which the wife of a living husband would be a person with a family, and that there may be circumstances under which she is not.

The majority holds that the wife, who has been uniformly so construed, is entitled to the exemption, as it is allowed by statute to "a person with a family." If every other member of the family is wealthy, the wife is pecuniary and does not need the exemption.
